

IT'S YOUR CHOICE: Life-Affirming Conversations about Death Spiritual Perspectives on Advance Care Planning

Join us for a look at key issues and trends in advance care planning. Spiritual leaders from the Jewish, Catholic, Protestant, Muslim, Buddhist, and Humanist traditions will present their views on key end-of-life issues followed by an interfaith discussion with audience members.

Sunday, April 27, 2014
2 – 3:30 p.m.
Davenport 102 Conference Room
North Shore Medical Center
81 Highland Avenue, Salem, MA 01970

Panelists:

Rabbi Baruch HaLevi	Congregation Shirat Hayam
James Croft	Humanist Activist, Harvard Graduate School of Education
Abu Hamzah and Abu Sadig	North Shore Islamic Center
Joan Amaral	Zen Buddhist Priest, Marblehead Zen Center
Very Reverend Father Paul Ritt	Catholic Priest, Our Lady of the Assumption, Lynnfield
Dr. Marvin Wilson	Professor of Biblical & Theological Studies, Gordon College

For more information on this free community event
please contact Dot McKeen at 978-741-1215

This program is approved for 1.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ and qualifies for risk management credit. Contact hour approval pending.

