Not sure who to choose as your Agent yet? No problem. Just skip Step 1 for now and go right to Step 2. You can start to make your health care plan with a Personal Directive.
Choosing a Health Care Agent: What does an Agent do?

As a competent adult, starting at 18 years old, you have the right to make your own health care decisions. However, serious accidents and illness can happen at any age, where you may not be able to make decisions about your care, even for a short while. You can choose a trusted person, called a Health Care Agent or Agent, who can step in to help. Your Agent is your advocate with the legal power to talk with your care providers and make decisions to get you the best possible care that matches your values and choices, all through your life.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1. Who can I choose?</th>
<th>Your Agent can be a family member, friend, co-worker, faith or community group member — anyone you trust except a person employed in the facility where you are a patient unless related to you by blood, marriage or adoption.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. What does my Agent do?</td>
<td>Your Agent is your advocate and tells your family &amp; care providers what’s important to you and your instructions for care. Your Agent makes health care decisions based on your values, beliefs and the care you want — not what the Agent might want. Under Mass law, you can give your Agent the power to make ‘any and all’ decisions including life-sustaining treatments decisions or limit the Agent’s powers in a Health Care Proxy.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. When does my Agent ‘step in’ to make decisions? When does my Agent ‘step back’?</td>
<td>Your Agent can ‘step in’ if you have a serious illness or injury and your physician determines you are unable to make care decisions for yourself, even for a short while. If you regain your ability to make your own decisions, your Agent ‘steps back’ and no longer has decision-making powers. Your Agent is there for you all through your life.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. How does my Agent make decisions for me?</td>
<td>Your Agent first consults with your care providers about your medical condition and the benefits and risks of possible treatment options. Your Agent then makes decisions in accordance with his/her assessment of your values, beliefs, and care choices. If your choices are unknown, your Agent makes an assessment of what is in your best interest.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 5. What kinds of decisions might an Agent make? | An Agent makes decisions to help care providers match the best care to your values, choices and priorities at every phase of health. For instance, when you are:
  - Healthy, an Agent considers your care goals to get you the best possible care;
  - Managing illness, an Agent may consider your ‘quality of life’ care goals and your priorities if your illness progresses;
  - Living with serious illness & end of life care, an Agent may consider your care goals and the tradeoffs you are willing to make, and your life-sustaining treatments choices. |
| 6. Do I have to appoint an Agent? | Under Massachusetts law, every competent adult can exercise their right to appoint an Agent in a Health Care Proxy. A spouse or family member does not automatically have the legal authority to make decisions unless appointed in a Health Care Proxy. Read more at https://malegislature.gov/Laws/GeneralLaws/PartII/TitleII/Chapter201D |
| 7. Do I need an attorney to appoint an Agent? | You do not need an attorney to appoint an Agent in a Health Care Proxy. You can do it yourself. We offer a no cost, downloadable Health Care Proxy Instructions & Form. |
| 8. What should I talk about with my Agent? | Tell your Agent what’s important to you and give instructions for the kind of care you want and do not want. We offer a no cost, downloadable Personal Directive Instructions & Form to write down your care choices and preferences. |

Things to Know About a Health Care Proxy

1. What is a Health Care Proxy?
   - A simple legal document you can do yourself
   - You choose a person you trust, called a Health Care Agent, to talk with your doctors and make health care decisions on your behalf, if you are not able to make effective decisions yourself
   - It tells your doctors who to talk to about your care, when they can not speak with you

2. Who can sign a Health Care Proxy?
   - Every competent adult has the choice to sign a Health Care Proxy. An adult must be:
     - 18 years old and older; able to understand his or her medical condition and the risks and benefits of possible treatments, and that he/she is giving another person the authority to make health care decisions on their behalf; and under no constraint or undue influence

3. How does a Health Care Proxy work?
   - As a competent adult, you make your own health care decisions and direct your care
   - If you have a serious illness or injury, and your attending physician determines in writing that you lack the ability to make or communicate health care decisions, your Health Care Agent steps in as your advocate with the authority to make health care decisions and get you the care you want
   - If you regain your ability to make decisions, your Agent steps back and no longer has authority

4. Who can be my Health Care Agent?
   - You can choose a spouse, family member, a friend – or someone you trust who knows what’s important to you and can represent your wishes and make complex decisions
   - Who cannot be an Agent? A person employed in a facility where you are a patient or resident or have applied for admission, unless they are related by blood, marriage or adoption

5. What decision making authority can I give my Health Care Agent?
   - You can give your Agent full authority to make any and all health care decisions that come up, or
   - Limit your Agent’s decision making authority by writing it in your Health Care Proxy
   - You can give your Agent specific instructions and information in your Personal Directive

6. Who can be a witness to sign the Health Care Proxy?
   - Any competent adult can be a witness except your Health Care Agent and Alternate Agent
   - Two adults must be present as witnesses when this document is signed. They watch as you sign the document, or as another person signs at your direction, and sign after you.

7. Can I change my mind or cancel or revoke a Health Care Proxy?
   - As long as you are competent you can change your mind, and change your Agent, his/her authority, and your preferences for the care you want. It’s your document and your choice.
   - A Health Care Proxy is revoked if you sign a new one; if you divorce or legally separate and your spouse is your Agent; or tell your Agent or provider you revoked or intent to revoke your Proxy

Step 2.
Write down your choices for care in a Personal Directive.

Step 2 Checklist:
A Personal Directive is your personal statement in which you write down what’s important to you and give instructions for the kind of care you want. You can use a Personal Directive to:

- Start a planning discussion with your Agent, family, friends, clergy and others;
- Write down instructions and care choices for your Agent and family;
- If you have not chosen an Agent yet, start to make your plan with a Personal Directive.

☐ Review Things to Know About a Personal Directive (Living Will)
  - Learn more about this powerful personal document and how to use it.

☐ Fill out your Personal Directive
  - When complete, keep your original document. Give a copy to your Agent and anyone you choose. Consider sharing it with your doctors & care providers.
Things to Know About a Personal Directive

1. What is a Personal Directive?
- It is your personal document or personal statement, not legally binding in Massachusetts, which gives your Health Care Agent ('Agent'), family and care providers information about what’s important to you and the kind of care you want & do not want. The Honoring Choices Personal Directive can be used:
  1. As a discussion guide to talk with your Agent, family, friends, clergy and care providers;
  2. To give written instructions & information to your Agent and family. It helps your Agent know how to make decisions on your behalf and represent your choices to your care providers;
  3. To start your personal health care plan, if you have not yet chosen an Agent. Simply fill out the Personal Directive and share it with your doctors & care providers to help them align quality care to your care goals, values and choices.

2. What’s the difference between a Health Care Proxy and a Personal Directive?
- A Health Care Proxy is a legally binding document in which you appoint a person you trust, called a Health Care Agent ('Agent'), to make health care decisions on your behalf if you are not able to make or communicate decisions yourself.
- A Personal Directive is NOT a legally binding document, but a personal document in which you give your Health Care Agent and family specific information and instructions about the kind of care you want, sharing your values, religious and cultural beliefs, and choices and preferences for care.
- These two documents work hand-in-hand. You appoint an Agent in a Health Care Proxy with the legal power to make health care decisions on your behalf, and give your Agent essential information and instructions about the care you want in a Personal Directive.

3. Who can create a Personal Directive?
Every competent adult can exercise his/her right to create a Personal Directive. An adult must be:
- 18 years old and older, of sound mind and under no constraint or undue influence.

4. How does a Personal Directive work?
- As a competent adult, you have the right to make your own health care decisions.
- If you become unable to make decisions yourself, even for a short while, your Health Care Agent can step in to make health care decisions on your behalf.
- After talking with your health care providers to understand your current condition, prognosis, and possible treatments options and outcomes, your Agent uses your Personal Directive to make health care decisions in accordance with his/her understanding of your wishes, religious & moral beliefs. If there are areas where your wishes are not known, your Agent will make health care decisions in accordance with his or her assessment of your best interest.
- You can revise and update your Personal Directive as often as you like over time.

5. Can I change my mind or cancel or revoke a Personal Directive?
- You can revise, cancel or revoke a Personal Directive anytime as long as you are competent.

6. How do I complete a Personal Directive?
It’s simple. You can do it yourself without the help of an attorney or doctor. Just download and print the free Honoring Choices Personal Directive Instructions & Document from our website.

Personal Directive
Short Form: Instructions and Document

A Personal Directive is a personal document, not legally binding in Massachusetts, in which you give your Health Care Agent ("Agent"), family, doctors and care providers information about what’s important to you and instructions about the kind of care you want and do not want. Your Personal Directive acts as your voice when you are unable to communicate or make care decisions for yourself.

- If you have chosen an Agent in a Health Care Proxy, your Agent uses your Personal Directive as a basis to make health care decisions on your behalf, and to talk with others about your care.
- If you have not chosen an Agent yet, your Personal Directive gives important information to your family, doctors and care providers to help them match quality care to your values and choices.

Instructions: Print this document and place the instructions page and blank form side by side in front of you. Follow the instructions and write in what you’d like others to know about your values, beliefs, goals and choices. Use both sides for more space. You can make changes anytime, as long as you are competent.

On the first line print your full name in the blank space, followed by your address. Check the box that applies about your Agent. If you have a Health Care Proxy, you can attach it to this document.

I. My Personal Preferences, Thoughts and Beliefs
- Let others know what’s most important to you (family, friends, work, faith, activities...)
- Write in anything you like to help others match care & services to your values and choices.
- Add information to help others manage your personal affairs while you recover or longer.

II. People to Inform about My Choices and Preferences
- List the names of family, friends and others you’d like to inform, and how they can help.

III. My Medical Care: My Choices and Treatment Preferences
- A. Current Medical Condition: Share information and your care preferences.
- B. Life-Sustaining Treatments: Cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), artificial ventilation and breathing, and artificial hydration and nutrition are treatments intended to prolong life by supporting an essential body function, when the body is not able to function on its own. Talk to your doctors about the risks, benefits and possible outcomes of attempting these treatments given your medical condition. Check the box or write in your instructions.

IV. Other Information, Instructions and Personal Messages:
- Write in (and attach additional pages) to provide information about your care, instructions for managing your personal affairs or pets, or personal messages to deliver to others.

V. SIGNATURE and Date
- Sign your full name and fill in the date as you sign it. You can revise or reaffirm this document.

Important: Keep the original and give a copy to your Agent, family, doctors and anyone else you would like. You can make changes or add information all through your life, as long as you are competent. Read more about the Personal Directive at www.honoringchoicesmass.com
